

The airwaves belong to the American people, not just a few large media companies. Please help ensure that the voices of smaller media concerns are not silenced through the media monopolies that are possible if the FCC rules are changed.